Declare That Slippery Streets This Winter Are Due to the Asphalt.

At a meeting held last night in the headquarters of the Horse Aid Society, No. 36

West Forfieth street, many protests were heard by Mrs. Jacob Ehrlich, president of the organization, in regard to the slippery streets of this city. It was contended by the team owners that a grante block paving would be superior to asphalt.

One horse owner asserted that forty per cent of the efficiency of horses was lost because of the slippery paving in winter and on account of the soft asphalt in summer. It was said that miles and miles of grante block paving were used in Livernoof. England, and that it was therefore the best paved city in the world. The life of the paving there was thirty years be taked been tried, but on account of the poor work in large, it was properly put down.
